This section is optional and can be used to provide a summary of recommendations to the IT manager regarding which controls and/or compliance best practices Botium Toys needs to implement, based on the risk posed if not implemented in a timely manner.

Recommendations (optional): In this section, provide recommendations, related to controls and/or compliance needs, that your IT manager could communicate to stakeholders to reduce risks to assets and improve Botium Toys' security posture.

There are multiple glaring vulnerabilities and risks require immediate attention.

To start, there needs to be implementation of the 'Least Privilege' in accordance with OWASP security principles; not all employees should have access to customers PII & SPII such as credit card information, which should be encrypted. Failure to privatize this data puts the company outside of compliance for the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) as well as the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard (PCI DSS). Furthermore there needs to be a clear separation of duties in compliance to the System and Organizations Controls (SOC type 1, SOC type 2)

By implementing better policies and controls in relation to SPII & PII and those who have access to such data will drastically reduce risk and overall impact of malicious insider or compromised accounts.

Strong password optimization needs to be put in place so as not to jeopardize customer and business data/assets. Establishing controls such as MFA (Multi Factor authorization , and stricter password requirements (such as the inclusion of special characters , capital letters , and numbers) will help improve security posture.

Additionally, there are opportunities for improving security posture through technical controls such as Intrusion detection systems alongside the existing controls in place. This will increase depth in security.

Lastly, there needs to be back ups made for all critical data as well as a recovery plan in event of disaster and to provide business continuity.
